CHINOOK CURLERS

ORGANIZE FOR SEASON

From the large and enthusiastic gathering which attended the organization meeting held last Wednesday for the purpose of electing officers for the Chinook Curling Club, it would seem that there will be a keen interest taken in this good old "Roarin' Game" this winter.

The following officers were elected for the season.

Patrons: Mr. Horne, of Calgary, and C. S. Mills, of Cereal. Hon. President, J. A. McColl, M.L.A.; President, W. A. Cruickshank; Vice-President, J. Rennie; Secretary-Treasurer, R. R. Dunn.

The executive comprises the Secretary, President, Messrs. O. Hinds, J. W. Deman and J. R. Miller.

At this meeting arrangements were made to get the necessary work done on the rinks so that as soon as the season opens every thing will be ready.

The membership fee this year is fifteen dollars for those living in the town, and ten dollars for farmers who live in the country.

In order that the rinks may be made up in good time, it is necessary that all those desiring to curl this year should hand in their names to the secretary at once.

Village Council Meet

The village council met on Thursday, Nov. 4. After the reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting, and the passing of the accounts presented, considerable discussion took place on several items of interest to the Village, viz:—

The enforcement of certain recommendations of the Health Department.

The advisability of petitioning the government to enforce the Liquor Act in this locality.

The securing of cinders for the streets and crossings.

The building of a sidewalk to the church. It was agreed that, lumber being so costly, a good cinder path be put down.

The Winnipeg Strike

The attention of all Canada is focussed on the city of Winnipeg, since May 15 has been in the throes of the greatest industrial strike ever known in the history of this Dominion. The strike had its origin ostensibly in the failure of the metal trades employers to recognize the metal trades workers, and in order to assist these workers in their fight for recognition, a general sympathetic strike of all workers in Winnipeg was called by the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council.

The claim of the strike leaders is, therefore, that they are fighting for recognition of the right of labor to organize, to engage in collective bargaining, and for a living wage for all workers. But their actions belie their words.

The right of labor to organize in craft unions, to engage in collective bargaining as its ally has been understood in the past through unions, and to a living wage, is not denied or challenged. On the contrary, it is frankly and openly admitted.

But certain revolutionary leaders who have succeeded in obtaining the upper hand in labor circles in Winnipeg now insist that collective bargaining should be understood as meaning the right of all workers to organize in One Big Union and to equip all employers of labor to deal with that union, rather than with the craft unions to which the men they employ belong. And in order to enforce this revolutionary change, and destroy all international labor unions now constituted and managed, they ordered the complete tie-up of the city of Winnipeg and attempted to deprive the people of all public utilities, and even the necessities to sustain life itself.

The establishment of the One Big Union, and all that its leaders declare it stands for, including the abolition of all production for profit, the nationalization of all industry, including all land, the release of all political prisoners, including active alien enemies, the establishment of a six-hour work day and a five-day week, can only be brought about by a complete revolution in our present system of responsible democratic government and the substitution therefor of the soviet system of government as they have it in Russia.

The sympathetic strike in Winnipeg, and the strikes called in sympathy with it in other western cities, is, in reality, the One Big Union in actual operation, and aims at the overthrow of properly constituted governmental authority as we have it in this country. The declarations of the strike leaders make this very clear, and, after studying the action, two members of the Federal Government, including the Minister of Labor, himself a union man, have become convinced of this fact.

Furthermore, in the early days of the strike the strike leaders actually usurped the functions of the Dominion, provincial and municipal authorities, while their recognized chief, Rev. Wm. Ivens, declared that the government of Winnipeg "had been transferred from the City Hall to the Trades Hall."

It is a revolutionary movement, and unfortunately, a large number of the organized labor unions have been led into it innocently and are being used by these men of Bolshevik ideals. The sane leaders of labor are opposed to the One Big Union and the general strike in Winnipeg. They are doing all they can to combat these revolutionary movements, while citizens generally are alarmed and have organized to defeat the attempt to overthrow constitutional government in this country.

The time has arrived when the Federal Government must bestir itself to control these Red agitators and revolutionists, and if they cannot be controlled they should be deported. They represent a small but noisy and dangerous element in the country, and wherever they obtain control over a group of individuals or an organization there is bound to be trouble.

In these days following the war, and the difficulties and burdens which that great struggle has imposed upon all nations and peoples, Canada included, it is all important that in working out needed reforms we should be constructive, not destructive, that we should follow the safe path of evolution, not revolution, and that all should recognize the fact that it is the first duty of every man and woman to devote their best thought and energies in the direction of the highest possible maximum of productive effort.

Arctic Regions as a Grazing Country

Government Has Appointed Commission to Inquire Into Possibilities.—Ottawa, Ont.—Largely through the representations of Mr. V. Stefansson, the government has appointed a commission, consisting of the explorer himself, Dr. J. G. Rutherford, of the Dominion Railway Commission, J. S. McLean and J. B. Harkin, commissioners of the Dominion parks, to inquire into the possibilities of the Arctic and sub-Arctic regions as a grazing and food-producing country.

It will be remembered that before the Senate recently, Mr. Stefansson referred to the huge herds of reindeer and musk-ox in northern Canada and the enormous grazing lands which he estimated as covering at the least 1,000,000 square miles.

AFTER EFFECTS OF INFLUENZA

Often as Serious as the Disease Itself.
How to Get New Health.
There are few homes in Canada that were not touched by the sorrow that trailed in the wake of the Spanish influenza epidemic. Estimates of the loss of life caused by this epidemic show that it was almost as great as the losses caused by the war, and these take no account of the inevitable after-effects which are sometimes as fatal as the disease itself.

"Victims of the disease go generally left with impoverished blood and a weakened system. In this condition they are exposed to many dangers and precautions are taken to control the blood and strengthen the nerves. The debility that invariably follows influenza is not a disease of any organ. It is a general condition of weakness. It must be met by a remedy whose good results will be quickly felt throughout the entire system. In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found invaluable. The mission of this medicine is to enrich the blood and this new, red blood carries renewed health and strength to every part of the body. The case of Mrs. George Lander, Hamilton, Ont., proves the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. Mrs. Lander says: 'I had a very severe attack of Spanish influenza, which left me pale and very weak. My appetite completely failed me, and the least noise would startle me and make me cry. I was under a doctor's care, and finally he advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I had not been taking them long before I could tell they were helping me. I used another nine or ten boxes and am now feeling as well as ever I did in my life. I believe if it had not been for these pills I would have been a chronic invalid.'"

Such proof as this must be interesting to everyone who suffered from an attack of influenza, and who still feel in any way weakened as the result of the trouble. It points the way to new health and strength, and if you are one of the sufferers you should at once get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Tribute Paid to Railway Employees

Honor Roll Unveiled at Montreal Carrying Names of Eighty-One C.P.R. Apprentices.

Montreal.—As a tribute to the 81 C.P.R. apprentices who enlisted for overseas service during the war, an honor roll was unveiled at the Angus shops in the presence of Mr. Burns, works manager, Mr. Muir, assistant works manager, and a representative gathering of foremen and apprentices. Mr. C. Kyle, supervisor of apprentices, occupied the chair. Mr. Burns paid a tribute to the boys who had paid the supreme sacrifice, and asked the apprentices to be worthy of the sacrifice made by their comrades while fighting to make this a better world for other people to live in. He commended the progress being made in school and shop, and referred especially to the good work done at the evening classes, and to the prize given by the Montreal council of arts and manufacturers. The C.P.R. itself gives five scholarships for proficiency in mathematics and mechanical drawing, while 380 apprentices get two hours instruction each week.

German Money Dug Up in Samoa

Reported That the Amount Actually Buried Ran Into Thousands.
Honolulu, Hawaii.—Richard H. Trent, representative here of the alien enemy property-custodian in Washington, District of Columbia, has received advices that about $600 worth of German money had been dug up under a house in German Samoa. The search was being continued for more, it being reported that the amount actually buried ran into thousands.

When the New Zealanders were preparing to move upon German Samoa, many German residents left Apia and moved to Tago Tago, the main part of the United States possession. It was known that they took with them large amounts of money in German currency. When the United States entered the war, and Germany was seized, the money was missing.

Lithuania And Its People

Language Is One of Oldest Now Spoken.
Lithuania is situated in the basin of the Niemen and Drina rivers on the southwestern coast of the Baltic Sea. The capital is Vilna. Its area is approximately 80,000 square miles, the population about nine millions, of whom seven millions are Lithuanians, three and a half million Lithuanians proper, one and a half million using Slavic dialects, and two million Letts. The country also contains a third of a million Poles. The rest of the population consists of Jews, White Russians, Germans and Mongols. It is said that there is no trace in the world's history of any other people having lived in these regions.

Although situated between the Slavs and the Teutons, the Lithuanians are in no way related to them. They claim that their language is one of the oldest now spoken in the world. It is said strikingly to resemble ancient Sanskrit.

Ancient Chinese Town.
Fen Chou Fu Not Immune to Outside Influence.

Even as time is counted in China, Fen Chou Fu is quite an old town. People were living there 2,000 years before the Christian era, and when the Manchus drove out the Mings the defeated rulers took refuge in Fen Chou Fu and rebuilt its city walls, although how long they stayed there the Twentieth Century traveler who described the ancient city in a current magazine neglects to tell the reader. But they made the walls strong, and probably set up the great, long-legged bronze birds that perch on them. In the gateway two upright stones mark the wide of vehicles permitted to enter the narrow, crooked streets, and everywhere the crows, hawks, magpies and whistling kites build their nests. An odd, old city, Fen Chou Fu is, nevertheless, not altogether immune to outside influence. The traveler photographed a Chinese wedding party, and atop his native habilitations the bridegroom is revealed wearing a derby hat.

Poles Are Blamed For Massacres

Washington, district of Columbia.—Information regarding numerous Jewish massacres in central and eastern Europe during last March and April, forwarded by special representatives of Jewish relief organizations, was presented to the State Department by Isaac Siegel, Congressman from New York. Names of 54 Jews who were massacred were given in the reports, which said many hundreds more about whom there was no definite information were killed.

Villages Wiped Out by Forest Fires.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to Make a Creamy Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Try just it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

Tariff Changes Not Sweeping

Ottawa.—The first after-war tariff delivery by Sir Thomas White in the commons provided to be one of the most important ever presented in the Dominion parliament. It was attentively listened to by a full house, while many interested spectators were in the galleries. While the tariff changes announced were not sweeping in character, they were much more comprehensive than the majority of the people were led to expect. The western supporters of the government state that the administration has gone a considerable distance in the direction of meeting their demands.

The outstanding features of the budget were a reduction in the duties on many agricultural implements from 15 per cent. to 27 per cent. (the rate proposed in the reciprocity agreement in 1911), a reduction in railway rates on agricultural implements; the repeal to the British preferential rate of 5 per cent. and the partial repeal of the intermediate and general tariff rate of 7½ per cent. imposed as a war measure in 1915; a number of other important tariff changes, including free importation of wheat, wheat flour and potatoes from countries which do not impose a customs duty on such articles produced in Canada; a heavy increase in income taxation, including the tax on corporations; renewal of the business profits tax for the current calendar year; and a promise of a general revision of the tariff after stable conditions have been restored, and subsequent to a general inquiry by the minister of finance and two or more of his colleagues.

The partial revision of the 7½ per cent. intermediate and general tariff rate makes it no longer applicable to foodstuffs, clothing of various kinds, leather goods, agricultural implements, petroleum oils, bituminous coal, etc. Reductions in ordinary tariff rates include a lowering of 5 cents per pound in the British preferential intermediate and general tariff rates on sugar or ground coffee, and 10 cents per pound under the preferential on British grown tea.

The reduction on freight rates on agricultural implements, the minister of finance explained, was brought about as a result of negotiations with the railways, which were asked to reduce their rates from eastern manufacturing points to prairie points to the rates charged by the American lines, with shorter mileage from Chicago to similar western destinations. The railways agreed to this in view of the government's proposal to give them relief by the abolition of the 7½ per cent. war duty on bituminous coal.

In order to make up for the estimated loss in revenue from tariff reductions, aggregating probably $17,000,000, and other anticipated losses in customs revenue, the finance minister proposed a considerable increase in income taxation. The normal rate of 40 per cent. will apply to all incomes exceeding $10,000 up to $60,000 in the case of unmarried persons, and upon all incomes exceeding $2,000 up to $6,000 in the case of other persons. There will be a normal tax of 8 per cent. upon incomes exceeding $6,000. The surtax will commence from $5,000 instead of $6,000 and will gradually increase up to 65 per cent. on the amount by which a net income exceeds $10,000.

The business profits tax provisions call for a 25 per cent. tax on profits in excess of 10 per cent. paid by businesses having a capital of $25,000 to $50,000. The tax on businesses having a capital of $50,000 and over is graduated up to a tax of 75 per cent. on profits in excess of 20 per cent. Exemption is provided for incorporated companies up to 7 per cent. and for other than incorporated companies up to 10 per cent. In connection with income and business profits taxation, the minister of finance issued the warning that these forms of taxation might easily be carried to a point where they would prove to be detrimental to the country. He pointed out that in some provinces there are three sets of income taxes, municipal, provincial and federal, which constitute heavy taxation upon individuals and business enterprises.

Austrians Not So Arrogant As Germans

Dr. Renner's Speech at St. Germain Made Impression Upon Peace Delegates

New York.—The Associated Press issues the following:

"A peace of right and justice, and assistance to tide over present troubles" are desired by the Austrian republic from the hands of the allied and associated powers over the peace table.

Thus Dr. Karl Renner set forth Austria's needs, at St. Germain, when the major portion of the peace terms of the allies was presented to the Austrians.

"Our state now rests in your hands, and we hope hereafter the conscience of the world that the allies will not abuse this power," Dr. Renner declared.

Under the terms of the treaty, Austria is to renounce possession of large tracts of territory, including Hungary and her colonial possessions. Her navy is to be entirely surrendered, but she is given transit privileges through former Austro-Hungarian territory in order that she may have access to the Adriatic. As to the future of her army, the decree will be submitted later. Likewise the demand for indemnities and reparation is reserved for future presentation.

Fifteen days are allowed the Austrians to reply to the demands of the allies, the same period of time that was accorded the Germans, although in the case of the Germans, it was slightly extended when appeal was made that it would be impossible to formulate the counter-proposals on the specified date.

Reports from Paris are to the effect that the issue over Fiume and the Dalmatian Islands is still the subject of discussion between the Italians and Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson.

St. Germain.—The representatives of the vanquished Austrian nation met the victors at a ceremony in the fifteenth century castle of St. Germain to appeal for grace and just and kindly treatment. No trace of the arrogant spirit with which Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, attempted at Versailles to arraign the allied powers as jointly responsible for the war and demanded participation in the negotiations on equal terms, marked the speech of Dr. Karl Renner, the Austrian Chancellor, who replied to Georges Clemenceau, the president of the conference.

The Austrian plenipotentiary, speaking in French as a concession to his auditors, did not seek to extenuate the guilt of the former Austro-Hungarian government for "the horrible crime of 1914."

He asked only that the full weight of the punishment should not fall fully on the little mountain republic, which was all that was left of the once mighty Austria—but that it be regarded as only one of eight or ten republics into which the old monarchy had been divided, and that it be apportioned no more of the penalty than it could bear.

Dr. Renner even went out of his way to praise the generous relief work undertaken by the allies. The tone of his speech evidently made a most favorable impression on the assembled plenipotentiaries.

Delegates of Poland, Czech-Slovakia and Yugoslavia alone evinced discontent at those parts of the speech in which the Austria chief, by implication, attempted to assign to them a proportionate share of the reparations.

It was evident, however, that Dr. Renner had been carefully studying the proceedings of the inter-allied conference, and he adapted his utterances to the situation.

Builds Own Hospital

Village's Only Physician Constructs Building Alone

Hastings-on-Hudson, N.Y.—Hastings-on-Hudson's only hospital, built with his own hands by the village's only doctor, has been completed and opened. Its builder, Dr. Gedney Jenks, spent three years in its construction after failing to raise funds for the work. He did the entire job himself, excepting for the occasional handling of a heavy beam when a passerby was called in to help.

The hospital is two stories, fully equipped with wards, operating room and all modern appliances. Dr. Jenks enlisted as a surgeon for overseas service when America entered the war, but the people of the village petitioned Washington for his release. He was sent back over his protest.

Lots of men sympathetic with the moon when it reaches its last quarter.

U.S. Bomb Terrorism

Effect of Outrages Is to Prepare New and Severe Penalties for Convicted Perpetrators

Washington.—Investigation of the bomb explosions at eight cities, which were intended to kill public men, has convinced secret service chiefs here that the outrages had a common source, and that they probably can be classed as an unsuccessful attempt on the part of a still-unknown anarchistic group to resume a reign of terrorism, begun with the May-Day attempt to deliver a series of infernal machines through the mails out of New York. "Washington police devoted their efforts to re-assembling fragments of the man who was killed at the door of Attorney-General Palmer's home, while attempting to plant his cargo of explosives," Mr. Palmer himself dismissed the incidents today as "utter failure to terrorize the country and stay the hand of the government," which purpose he ascribed to the authors of the outrages.

Government experts on explosives after surveying the site of the explosion here and the partially demolished dwelling, came to the conclusion that two separate bombs exploded, probably when the man carrying them tripped over a stone in the entrance.

In both houses of congress members began the preparation of measures providing new and severe penalties for convicted perpetrators of such crimes.

Allies Stop General Strike

Germans Protest Against Rhenish Republic

Coblenz.—A general strike throughout the occupied area was declared by the Germans as a protest against the reported hounding of the Rhenish republic at Wiesbaden. It was brief, however, being only four hours in duration, the workmen returning to their labors after being warned of the consequences by the allied military authorities. The principal strikers were railway employees and the street car workers at Treves and Coblenz.

When the news of the strike became known, word was sent to the strikers that unless the Germans returned to work by 1 o'clock the leaders and all the other strikers would be deported into sections of Germany unoccupied by allied troops. The inter-allied railway commission reported that all the workers had returned to their jobs. Newspapers in Coblenz started stories denying the birth of the German republic at Wiesbaden, and asserting that the report was an effort on the part of certain Germans to mislead the population of the Rhineland.

German Chancellors Declaration

Versailles.—A member of the German delegation with the rank of colonel of legion, who returned here recently from Berlin, made this declaration concerning the peace treaty: "We will sign, despite all, because we will be backed by pieces if we return to Berlin without signing."

Council of Four Nearer Accord

Veterans Offer Aid to End Winnipeg Strike

Wire Offer to Act as Mediator in Effort to Effect Settlement There

Ottawa.—The Dominion executive of the Great War Veterans' association, in session here, has offered to act as mediator in an effort to effect a settlement of the Winnipeg strike. The following message was sent all parties concerned in Winnipeg this afternoon:

"The Dominion executive of the Great War Veterans' association of Canada, now in executive session in Ottawa, representing the great majority of returned soldiers in Canada, and having the best interests of all Canadians at heart, do hereby invite representatives of all conflicting interests in Winnipeg and district to accept this, our offer to act as mediators to settle the strike situation in the best interests of all Canada. Please wire reply, if acceptable. (Signed) 'V. P. PURNEY, Dominion President, 'G.W.V.A. of Canada.'"

Less Than 80,000 Overseas

Value of Experience

If the average man could live his life over he would probably be a bigger fool than ever.

Receive German Protest

Paris.—Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, has sent a formal letter of protest to the peace conference, complaining that the armies of occupation in Germany are arbitrarily protecting and favoring the individuals who are attempting to establish a Rhenish republic. The protest adds that the armies are also preventing the Germans from manifesting counter-feeling.

After a casual glance over the peace terms, no German would have any doubt as to who won the battle of Jutland.—Toronto Telegram.

Paris.—Conference circles are somewhat relieved by assurances from high quarters that the Council of Four is nearing an accord on the reply to the German counter-proposals.

The council held a session with M. Paderewski, the Polish premier present, concerning the Polish frontier in Germany, particularly Silesia, and considered the vigorous protests of Rumania and other Balkan states against giving the League of Nations supervision over the protection of racial minorities.

M. Paderewski strongly opposed any modification in the political status of Silesia, as fixed by the treaty. This led to a proposal to grant the Germans economic advantages in Silesian coal, iron and zinc, sufficient to carry on industries and aid in paying the indemnities.

The experts presented tables showing that the treaty's cession of Silesia and the Sane region has resulted in reducing Germany's coal by 31 per cent., iron 74 per cent. and zinc 80 per cent., and it is to offset these reductions that it is proposed to establish an economic exchange without modifying Polish political control.

The general situation within the council is described as tending more towards modification of the details of the German treaty, without affecting the fundamentals. M. Clemenceau's position in this respect is believed to be approaching that of Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson, as M. Clemenceau's close associate, M. Loucheur, has been conferring with the British and American experts concerning the provisions on which modifications have been proposed.

Kurdistan Reports Exaggerated

London.—The war office believes that the report of the Kurdistan uprising is exaggerated through Turkish propaganda. Some trouble has occurred, but the situation is considered well in hand. The report that a contingent was surrounded has not been confirmed.

A serious uprising was reported on May 29 in southern Kurdistan. It was feared that British troops there were in serious peril. A London dispatch said that British forces in Mesopotamia were taking steps to check the tribesmen.

Postal Employees Are Discharged

Ottawa, Ont.—That the government is determined not to reinstate post office employees who went out on a sympathetic strike in the West and declined to return, to duty when requested to do so, seemed clear in two telegrams sent by Sir Robert Borden, one to Mr. Sincks, secretary of the central strike committee, Calgary, and the other to W. Hollingsworth, secretary of the Alberta Methodist conference.

The prime minister's telegrams were in reply to messages received by him. The message from Mr. Sincks to the premier conveys a long resolution passed by the Brotherhood of Dominion Express employees condemning the announcement by Postmaster-General Blouin, that postal employees on strike should be considered dismissed.

The telegram concluded: "The central strike committee notes in passing that the Dominion government, after having been appealed to to settle present crisis in a manner satisfactory to labor, has answered the appeal by taking up an antagonistic retaliatory attitude. The people's government is once more asked to stand behind the people, not against them."

The telegram from the Alberta Methodist conference covered a resolution passed by that body, expressing the view that the action of the government "cannot but perpetuate rather than alleviate the social unrest, and to be subversive of the principles enunciated by the commission on labor legislation accepted by the peace conference, in the preparation of which Sir Robert Borden is said to have had a leading part."

The telegram called upon the government to repeal its action and expressed the opinion that employees of governments, municipal, provincial and federal, must be guaranteed the right of effective protest against wrong conditions. Sir Robert Borden's reply to the secretary of the central strike committee was as follows:

"It is desirable that your attention should be called to facts which your committee has not taken into consideration. The government has always been prompt to give its best consideration to the demands of all public servants. In doing so it has no purpose to serve other than the public interest. It can only act under the mandate of the people's representatives in parliament and always as the trust and guardian of the public interests. The postal employees were bound by obligation and by oath faithfully to serve the people of Canada. They went out on strike in Winnipeg, not in respect of any grievance of their own, but in alleged sympathy with employees of private companies. They were given three days within which to return to their duty, and they were distinctly informed that they must make a choice between directions received by them from the strike committee and the duty which they owe to the people of Canada. Some of them returned. Those who persisted in the strike took their course deliberately and with full notice of the consequences which would inevitably follow.

"In other western states before any strike took place a most distinct and positive intimation was given to postal employees that abandonment to their public duty constituted a violation of their obligations to the directions of another authority and participation in a sympathetic strike would mean their permanent retirement from the public service. The people of Canada cannot tolerate the proposal that under such circumstances civil servants shall be permitted to violate their obligations to the directions of another authority and to participate in a sympathetic strike to interfere and to put aside all respect for public duty. The government cannot reinstate men who have deserted their posts under such circumstances unless it is prepared to abandon all effective attempt to maintain the national services.

Amir's Treachery

Military Position of British in Afghanistan Is Satisfactory

London.—Renner's learns that the position in Afghanistan from the military viewpoint is much improved. Probable developments from the Amir's latest move cannot be forecasted until more definite information with regard to Afghan attitude is available, but it may be pointed out that the Amir's letter to the viceroy and his orders to his generals both contain glaring inaccuracies.

The suggestion that the Afghans were obliged to take defensive measures on any British act is, of course, quite untrue. The fact is the Afghan troops crossed the border at a dozen places and were mobilizing against the frontier as rapidly as possible when they received no provocation whatever.

Austria Is Apathetic

Willing to Accept Conditions as Laid Down and Thus Bring Peace

New York.—The Associated Press issues the following:

Like the German government, the Austrian government is said to be dissatisfied with the peace terms of the allied and associated powers, which are declared by one of the responsible newspapers of Vienna to be unacceptable.

Unlike the German populace at large, however, the Austrian people apparently are apathetic, having expected no easy terms, and are willing and even anxious to accept the conditions as laid down, and thus bring peace to the sorely afflicted former empire, which is rendered by the treaty virtually an inland state of small territorial proportions.

Dodging Responsibility For Starting War

Berlin.—(Associated Press).—Prof. Haase Delbrueck, General Count Max Montgelas, and Professor Weber, German experts at Versailles, have drawn up a long memorandum on the question of responsibility of the war, which will be presented as a reply to the cabinet commission's report on the subject.

The memorandum argues the necessity of submitting the question to an impartial commission for investigation, and denies there was any secret plot between Berlin and Vienna to destroy Serbia.

It says that the German government could not accept the efforts of Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs in 1914, who offered to mediate, because it doubted his powers to check the warlike aspirations of Russia. Emperor Nicholas' proposal to refer the dispute to the Hague also failed, it is said, because on the same day the proposal was made the mobilization of thirteen army corps was ordered. Russia's imperialist policy, the memo argues, made war with Germany inevitable.

It says that Germany's war against France was one of defence and against Germany's naval policy was of such a nature as to arouse the distrust of Great Britain.

Canada's Status

In League of Nations on a Par With Smaller States of World

London.—Replying in the House of Commons to Mr. Norton Griffiths, R. C. Bonar Law, government leader in the House, stated that the government intended that representation of the Dominions in the League of Nations should be as full as that of the smaller sovereign nations. Representatives of the Dominions would be eligible for appointment to the executive council on the same terms as other members of the League.

Wish to Join Sweden.—The Landsting of the Aland Islands has sent to the Peace Conference a resolution demanding the reunion of the Aland Islands with Sweden. The resolution was adopted unanimously at a meeting of delegates at Mariehamn.

Germany Prepares for Emergency.—Paris.—A report has reached peace conference circles that Gustav Noske, the German minister of defence, recently made a tour of the German coast defences and directed the personnel to be prepared for emergency.

OUR TOWN

Patronize home where your interests are, and help maintain and support these interests—your interests. Get that selfishness out of your heart that is envious of every success, that wants to pull down every interest that seems to reach beyond yours, and is in reality an advantage to it and the town. Neither imagine when a few dollars you accumulate you must go out of town to spend them, thinking it would never do to distribute a little cash to your home merchants, since you can stand them off for six months or a year. They'll appreciate the cash and give you just as good bargains as any merchant or department store in the city. Encourage home dealers in everything, not only by your patronage but by words of encouragement and commendation. This is the way to build up a town. Stand by your town and support all its interests.

The New President

The world has just seen the 29th President of U.S. come into being. Senator Harding has not made the journey "from Log Cabin to White House," but his life has not been uneventful. Fifty-five years ago it began, in a small frame house, in the Ohio village of Blooming Grove, near Marion, his father being a struggling country doctor. Newspaper work has absorbed Mr. Harding's best energies, leaving politics to be pursued as a side line. A thoroughgoing Republican before he was old enough to vote. Harding served on a Democratic Journal, but owing to the complaints of the Democrats, he was fired from the old "Marion Mirror." He and a boy chum borrowed $300 and bought the sinking "Marion Star" which had the honor of standing as the first small town daily in Ohio. The partnership was dissolved because Harding would have a telephone installed, and the partner was put on a salary of $9 per week, which left him better off than his master.

Canadian interest in the struggle for White House did not rise to fever height, and probably the Dominion generally was more interested in Harding's attitude on the Tariff question; than on his views in regard to the League of Nations. He stands for a high protection wall and must reconcile the two factions in his party—one being for the U. S. inside the League, and the other protesting against the country having anything to do with it.

President Harding is a Baptist and a Mason, and according to all accounts an honest man of simple and unpretentious character.

May he fill with honor and success the difficult position to which his country has called him.

Germans Plan Treachery

State Munition Factories Continue to Produce Ammunition

A special correspondent in Paris reports that the German admission of defeat is only partial. They say, yes, on the western front we were beaten, but on the eastern front we were victorious. There they intend to remain victors.

The junker element which stands behind the German Government will fight tooth and nail rather than abandon Posen and Upper Silesia, particularly the latter province, when Germany drew, before the war, one-fourth of her hard coal, three-fourths of her zinc, something like a tenth of her iron and steel, and one-fifth of her potash.

Germany has been making preparations to retake those provinces from Poland, counting on the absorption of the allied nations on peace interests to paralyze the action of the League of Nations when the peace conference has broken up and the present organization of the allies for bringing pressure on their enemies no longer exists.

If there were any doubts about the intentions and preparations of the German government during the last few months, they must be removed by the perusal of three secret documents which have come into the hands of the allied governments.

The first is a confidential circular signed by Gustave Noske, Minister of National Defence, and dated February 24 of this year, ordering all state munition factories to work night and day and all private establishments to continue to produce ammunition for guns of all calibres in use up to November 9, 1918. It adds: "Raw materials will be provided for at Spandau—the Government arsenals. It is necessary to furnish an excuse for this work to the allied commissioners, and it is to be stated that the factories are being kept going to provide work for the unemployed."

The second is a letter from the chief of the general staff of the armies in the field to the Minister of War, dated March 2, urging the troops returning from the front to be at once disbanded and sent home, on account of their unhealthiness, and asking that classes of 1897 to 1901 be called up. These classes, it is stated, would furnish good material, and would provide 600,000 men. The chief of staff said that unless these actions are taken there would be danger of losing the eastern provinces.

The third is a letter from the chief of general staff of armies in the field to the general commanding the army corps in Breslau, dated March 15, instructing him to take discreet measures to excite the Poles in Upper Silesia to provoke incidents.

The steps to be taken, he said, are to have such incidents reported in the press. "It would be useful," the letter remarks, "to bring about an insurrection of the Poles."

In spite of the efforts of the allied commission at Posen, the state of war all along the new Polish frontiers never has ceased. By such measures as are suggested in the letter quoted above, these men who are directing the destinies of Germany hope to keep the conflict smouldering.

Annual Convention Of Irrigationists

Expected to Surpass in Usefulness All Previous Conventions

Regina, Sask.—The Western Canada Irrigation Association will hold its convention this year at Medicine Hat during the first three days of the week, beginning August 4, and will be attended by large numbers of irrigationists not only from Alberta, but from all parts of Western Canada and from the United States. Many interesting papers will be read dealing with the practical side of irrigation, covering such topics as Commercial Seed Growing, Profitable Crops with Irrigation in Southern Alberta, Livestock on the Irrigated Farm, the Economic Phase of Irrigation, and many other matters of interest to irrigation farmers.

The choice of Medicine Hat as the convention city is a happy one. With Lethbridge and Calgary, it forms one of the triangle of cities within the large irrigated area in southern Alberta. It is also within easy reach of the Cypress Hills irrigation district in Saskatchewan. The increasingly important place which irrigation occupies in agriculture in Western Canada is reflected in the work of the Western Canada Irrigation Association, and this year's convention is expected to surpass in usefulness all previous conventions, valuable as these have been to practical irrigationists throughout the country.

A Japanese soldier is paid seventy-eight cents a month. Just think, if he lives a century and doesn't spend anything he'll have $936!

The German Whine

Say That It is a Peace of Might Instead of Right

Berlin.—The reply complains that "might before right" dominates the allied treaty. Objections expressed to the demand that Germans be surrendered for trial in enemy countries, the reply contending that an impartial authority ought to be instituted to establish all violations of international law, by whosoever committed. It is asserted that it is inconsistent that some of the allied and associated powers, such as Italy and Rumania, have entered the war for the sake of territorial conquest.

Complaint is made that the amount of compensation is to be fixed by a hostile commission, whose powers would enable it to administer Germany as a bankrupt state. This, it is declared, is incompatible with the innate right of nations.

The reply maintains that the treaty should be regarded as a whole, which is simply to be destroyed, and adds: "This is a complete repudiation of the idea that every nation has a right to exercise and violates the rights of self-determination."

The statement then details long objections to the proposed treatment of the Saar region, Malmedy, Moresnet and the eastern frontiers and argues that the worst manifestation of the disregard of the right of self-determination is the separation of Danzig from the German empire.

It says that the treaty involves destruction of German economic life and subjects the German people to a financial slavery "unparalleled in the history of the world."

If such a treaty came into force, it is declared, it would mean a fresh catastrophe for the whole world.

Schools of Long Ago

Paper Was Scarce and Too Highly Prized to Waste

In country schools, even till the middle of this century, writes Alice Morse Earle, in "Child Life in Colonial Days," copybooks were made of foolscap paper, carefully sewed together into book shape, and were ruled by hand. For this children used lead pencils instead of pens. These pencils were made of lead melted and cast in wooden molds, cut out by the ever-ready jackknife, and were then tied by a hemlock string to the ruler. The pencils were usually shaped like a tomahawk, and carefully whittled and trimmed to a sharp edge. Slightly varied shapes were a carpenter's or a woodworker's axe; also there were cannon, battle-axes, and cylinders. Paper was scarce and too highly prized for children to waste; it was a great burden even to mislead to get what paper they needed for their lessons, and they frequently acquired microscopic handwriting for economy's sake.

World-Wide Dry Plans Outlined

A Great Aggressive World Drive Against the Drink Traffic

New York.—The call to the world-wide prohibition conference recently issued by the prohibition leaders of the United States and Canada to temperance and prohibition organization in 50 countries, contains these statements:

"No great problem which has to do with human welfare can be solved fully and permanently by a single nation, regardless of others. Races and nations alike are subject to that high law of international ethics which insists that the solution by any people of a problem which concerns the world carries with it the duty and responsibility of passing on each solution to others."

"World conditions present an unparalleled opportunity for the prompt organization and speedy success of such a movement for moral betterment as that represented by the anti-liquor crusade. Hears have been softened and chastened by the catalysis through which the nations of the world have passed. Humanity has a larger vision, men are talking and thinking in world terms, and are prepared for a bigger problem of reform. The time is opportune for a great aggressive world drive against the drink traffic."

Ruth Law Will Attempt Atlantic

Chicago.—Ruth Law, aviatrix, before leaving for New York announced that she plans to attempt a transatlantic flight within six weeks. She will use a new Curtiss land biplane, equipped with 400 horse-power, each and will be accompanied by James Lamont, her mechanic. The machine is now being built for her by the Curtiss company, she says. She expects the U.S. navy to give her assistance in making the flight. Miss Law recently returned from the Orient, where she was engaged in flying.

Allied Officers Fought Rebels

Saved Lives of 400 White Women and Children

New York.—The story of how a handful of British and allied officers fought off for three days the attacks of five thousand Egyptian insurgents and saved the lives of 400 white women and children was told by Prof. Algood, of Birmingham, Alabama, who arrived here from Assuit, Egypt. For the last four years Prof. Algood has been science instructor at the College of Assuit, the capital of Upper Egypt.

On March 20 an outpost rider reached the town with the news that a band of Senyusid Arabs was advancing on the town. The allied officers quickly organized the defence and defeated the first assault, which was delivered that day by about 600 natives. Revelling fellahs swarmed to the standards of the besiegers and an attack was made with fanatical fury. The ammunition of the besieged ran short and the situation was desperate when British airplanes from Alexandria succeeded in dropping supplies into the beleaguered town. At the end of the third day gunboats with rescuing troops made their way up the Nile, drove off the attackers and relieved the garrison.

During the fighting the college, Christian churches and all English property were destroyed by the rebels.

Useless to Renew War Against Poland

Hindenburg Says Allied Blockade Makes Action Impossible

Copenhagen, Denmark.—Germany could smash the Czechoslovak and the Polish armies within a month if she was assured the allies would not attack her, Field Marshal von Hindenburg is reported to have declared in messages received here.

Von Hindenburg continued, however, that a renewal of war against the Czech and Polish forces was useless under existing conditions. Nothing could be accomplished with an allied army blockading Germany, he declared.

Mr. Scheideemann's continued refusal to accept von Hindenburg's views finally resulted in the retirement of the general, the report adds.

Religious War In Afghanistan

Is Being Vigorously Preached and Everybody Is Buying Arms

London, England.—Large Afghan forces are facing the British on the northwest frontier of India, a large proportion being well armed and equipped and formidable adversaries in every way.

The attempts of the emissaries of the Amir of Afghanistan to induce the British to regard as only moderately successful. A certain number, however, are wavering and will probably decide to support the side which gains the first success. The Khyber Rifles is being disbanded owing to desertions.

A British representative from Kandahar has reached Quetta and reports that a jihad, or religious war, was being vigorously preached and everybody was buying arms.

A government of India dispatch states that as a result of the Afghan attack in force on May 16, which was driven off on May 17, the first Indian brigade, with aeroplane co-operation, attacked and captured the hills west of Dacca. This successful action has had instantaneously beneficial effect on the tribes.

Proposed Triple Alliance

Will Mean Perpetuation of Existing Engagement Between the Countries

There is no new idea in the proposal for an alliance of the United States, Great Britain and France to defend the last-named power from future German aggression. Such a compact will mean to Great Britain the perpetuation of a reputation and reinforcement of the engagement existing between the countries prior to 1914. So far as the United States is concerned, the agreement will be merely the re-affirmation of a policy of the American people which public opinion forced on the President, against his will, at the very start of the world war. The sympathy of the United States went out to France in such a concrete way that it swept aside all the administration's academic ideas of neutrality and made us an ally of the French, and the co-defender with Great Britain long before we formally became an associate belligerent.—Detroit Free Press.

Lumber for British Uses

To Be Shipped to England in Demountable Ships

Vancouver, B.C.—Sir James Ball, British timber controller, and Mr. Montague Meyer, purchaser for the British government, have been here interviewing local lumbermen in regard to the purchase of British Columbia lumber for British uses. As a result, it is announced, that orders have been placed for 20,000,000 feet of lumber to be shipped from Vancouver to England via the Panama Canal in demountable ships. Sir James said the scheme for demountable ships was feasible. He had placed an order for four of these ships, which would average 5,000,000 feet of lumber each.

Danes Returning To Schleswig

To Vote For Its Return To Denmark

New York, N.Y.—Scandinavian steamships are filled with Danes, who have lived, many of them, for many years, perhaps even half a century, in America, who are now returning to their native Schleswig to vote for its return to Denmark, according to Larsen Ledet, of Aarhus, who has recently arrived in the United States to take part in the national prohibition troops arranged by the Anti-Saloon League.

"Denmark is the happiest country in Europe," said Mr. Ledet, "for at last, after 55 years, she is to regain her Province of Schleswig. We want Schleswig back because it is Danish, but we do not want Holstein, because that is too German, and is the province where there has been the most trouble for the last century."

"There is great joy in Schleswig today, for the vote as to the future allegiance of the province is to be taken next month. Everywhere the Danish flag, for the first time in many years, because of Germany's prohibition, is now flying, although the people are still forbidden to speak the Danish language or to sing Danish songs. Germany is still oppressing the Danish people of Schleswig even today, but the people are bearing up well, because they know that in four or five weeks it will be over. Then they will put an end to all teaching of German in the schools, and the province will rejoice."

"Schleswig is about the most fertile part of Denmark, and is famous for its butter, eggs and bacon; it is entirely an agricultural country. During the war, production was practically stopped because it was impossible to get foodstuffs from America, and it is necessary to get food from America. Many of the Schleswig men were mobilized by Germany and were made to fight in her front lines, and their death rate was twice as large as that of the Germans on that account."

"Denmark has had a very hard time in the war, because of her position, she was unable to defend herself, and so had to be friendly with both England and Germany. But although she was neutral in deed, she was, in her heart, entirely on the side of the Allies."

Canadian Soldier as Farmer

4,000 Will Be Located in the Prairie Province

Edmonton, Alberta.—With the 7,000 soldier-farmers who will go on the land this spring and summer to run farms of their own, 4,000 will be located in the prairie province, says Capt. W. C. C. Innes, director of equipment for the soldier settlement board. Branch offices of the stock equipment branch have been opened in Edmonton and Calgary for the purpose of giving assistance to prospective soldier settlers in the way of information about their necessary purchases of live stock, implements and lumber. Arrangements have been made with leading manufacturers of farm implements for special rates on their machines. Similar arrangements have been completed with a number of lumber yards for special prices on building supplies. The settler deals direct with these firms on requisition from the board, and gets the same service as the usual retail customer.

Overseas Fair to Promote Trade

London.—Dunlop representatives supporting the proposal of the British Empire Club for a great exhibition in London in 1921 of products of the Empire to promote imperial trade. The government will be approached for sanction and a large and representative organizing committee appointed.

Palace for the Austrian Delegation

Contains a Wonderful Collection of Gallie Relics

Paris, France.—The palace of Francis I. at Saint Germain-en-Laye has been prepared for the Austrian peace delegation. Used as a museum, it contains a wonderful collection of Gallie relics ranging from prehistoric times to the era of the Gallie kings. Glass-covered tables and cases containing flint weapons, bronzes, bangles, pottery and other priceless collections have been removed to provide space for the meetings of the Austrian plenipotentiaries.

It was planned that the presentation of the terms of peace would occur in the most beautiful apartment of the old palace, which is located on the first floor and approached by a grand staircase, the walls of which are embellished with royal devices. The fireplaces and ceilings of the apartment are also beautifully decorated. Tapestries were brought from the national storehouse to cover the wall cases, which were filled with remains of the mammoth and the great elk that once roamed over France. Two adjoining apartments were also cleared and a room devoted to the famous collection of Gallie pottery was used as a cloak room.

Two groups of nearby villas were requisitioned for the Austrian and the Hungarian delegates. They are quite distinct, so that no communication could pass between the two delegations of the former Dual Empire.

Another Irish Rebellion

Sinn Feiners Thought to be Planning a New Revolt

London.—An impending new rebellion in Ireland, with hints of some imminent drastic action by the government has been the subject of prominent paragraphs and articles in certain of the London newspapers during the last few days.

The Daily Mail, which printed a conspicuous article on Wednesday, predicted that the rebellion would be more serious than the last, owing to the encouragement given to the Sinn Fein republican movement by Messrs. Dunne, Ryan and Walsh, the United States delegates, carries a report that Walter Hume Long is to replace James MacPherson as chief secretary.

Frenchman Invents New Airplane

An airplane on entirely new lines has been invented by M. B. Passet, a Frenchman residing in England, which he claims, when perfected, will revolutionize the art of flying. The inventor contends that since a bird propels itself by its wings and not by a propeller placed in front or behind, the same principle should apply to heavier than air machines. The plane lifts itself from the ground with the entire aid of its wings driven by a central motor. The British government is assisting the inventor in perfecting this strange craft.

Refused to Ratify Advance to Austria

Commission Has Given as Reason Insufficiency of Guarantees

Paris, France.—The Budget Commission, having on the demand of Mr. Etienne Clementel, Minister for Commerce, refused to ratify the advance of 45,000,000 francs for the re-victualing of Austria, Mr. Stephen Pichon, Foreign Affairs Minister, has signified his intention of making a statement before the commission. The commission has given as a reason for its refusal the insufficiency of guarantees and the wish to know the political reasons which had induced the government to concede the proposed advance. "Perrinax" in the Echo de Paris states that it is understood that the reason of the Budget Commission's refusal is simply in order to draw attention to the necessity for the drawing up of inter-allied financial and economic agreements.

To Punish Turks

London.—In reply to Capt. Ormsby Gore in the house of commons, Cecil Harcourt, under secretary of foreign affairs, has stated that the whereabouts of Enver Pasha and Talaat Bey were unknown at present, but the government was determined to bring them to account for their atrocities during the war.

It was understood the peace treaty with Turkey would provide for this.

Vote to Recede from Germany

Hamburg.—A movement for the separation of Rhenish Prussia from the rest of Germany is showing positive results, according to a Dusseldorf dispatch to the Freudenblatt. Fifty thousand voters in the city of Aix la Chapelle and the immediate neighborhood have signed a petition demanding the establishment of a West German free state.

Care of the Wounded

Reciprocal Agreement Upon Hospital Treatment on Both Sides of Border

Washington.—Under reciprocal agreement completed between Canada and the United States, United States citizens who were wounded while serving in the Canadian army will receive hospital treatment under the direction of the bureau of war risk insurance after they return to the United States, and Canadians wounded in United States service will be cared for by their government after returning home. Each government will reimburse the other for the costs of rendering the service. The Canadian department of soldiers' re-establishment will look after the work on the other side of the border.

Germans Have Not Given Up Ambitions

Would Not Be Surprised If They Again Crushed Poland

London, England.—The Austro-Hungarian empire has ceased to exist. What will be the fate of its former territories? Will they again be at the mercy of Berlin as they were during the war, or shall we see a new Central Europe arise which will forever shatter the German dreams of world conquest? Judging from the reports of the allied correspondents in Vienna, it seems that allied public opinion is not yet clear on these capital issues. It is nice to imagine that because the kaiser has gone the German or Magyar mentality has changed. It would be a great mistake to think that the German militarist and world politician has become converted over night into a peace-loving, harmless creature. Everything points to the fact that the Germans have not given up any of their ambitions. If they did not reach Baghdad, they will attempt to reach Vladivostok, and with the present indication of the Allies on the Russian question it would not be at all surprising if they succeeded in their schemes, and with the help of Russia again crushed Poland and then the other new Slav states which have only just arisen on the ruins of Austria.

Discuss Flu Epidemic

Doctors Still Undecided If Quarantine Is of Any Use in Disease

Toronto.—Various phases of the influenza epidemic were discussed at the joint congress of the Canadian Public Health Association and the Ontario Health Officers' association, in the University of Toronto, presided over by Dr. J. A. Hutchinson, of Westmont, Quebec, president.

Dr. W. H. Forest, surgeon in the University of Toronto, shuddered at the United States public health service of Washington, stated that records showed that epidemics of influenza and pneumonia have swept over various countries at intervals of a number of years.

Dr. August Wadsworth, director of the division laboratories and research, state department of public health, Albany, said that, in spite of warnings from Europe, little was done on this continent to prevent an epidemic. Although the demand for vaccines was unprecedented, there was a lack of evidence as to their value. Vaccination did not give complete immunity, he said.

Lieut.-Col. J. A. McCullough, Toronto, chief health officer of Ontario, expressed doubt as to the real value of closing schools, etc., in dealing with influenza epidemics. A number of doctors present differed from Dr. McCullough's view and favored quarantine.

Another Protest from Erzberger

Berlin.—Mathias Erzberger, chairman of the German armistice commission, has sent a note to Gen. Nudant, the representative of Marshal Foch, at Spa, protesting against the alleged encouragement given by General Gerard, of the French army, to those seeking the separation of the Bavarian Palatinate from Bavaria and Germany. The note was sent through General Von Hammerstein, the German military representative at Spa.

The Anomalies of the Ballot

Here are some of the anomalies of municipal life. In Bombay a man who is the proud possessor of a bicycle is a municipal vote in virtue of that distinction, and equally owning a handcart entitles him to vote, but paying a rent of Rs. 500 a month does not so entitle him as the Act stands, if he pays his taxes through his landlord. In Calcutta the suggestion that women are qualified to vote has been rejected by a committee of the corporation.

As a means of refilling the depleted Austrian treasury, Parliament is considering the establishment of V. K. enna of a Casino on Monte Carlo lines.

Value of C.P.R. Land Grant

Misconceptions of the Value of Subsidies Given the C.P.R.

The Montreal Gazette, in discussing the value of the original land grant to the C.P.R., says in part:

In discussion of the railway problem in Canada the traditional misconception of the value of subsidies given the Canadian Pacific Railway persists. At the recent meeting of Grand Trunk shareholders in London, the chairman, Mr. Smithers, more than once alluded to three subsidies as having a value of $350,000,000, and the Toronto Globe, discussing facts and presenting half-truths, thus comments:

"Where did the Canadian Pacific get this princely heritage of land, greater in extent than some of the European kingdoms, for the possession of which the great war was fought? From the people of Canada as a free gift, to enable the company, by providing cheap and adequate railway service to open up the West for settlement. And have the proceeds of this vast land grant been devoted to the interest of the people?"

"Let us look at the situation squarely in the face. As the railway franchise is its own earnings the Canadian Pacific might be able to pay six per cent. a year upon the capital actually invested in it by its shareholders. As the most richly-dowered corporation on earth, by drawing upon its vast landed estate, it actually pays ten per cent."

"Almost all of this vast landed estate came to the Canadian Pacific from the people of Canada without the payment of a dollar, either in acquiring title or in taxation, during the long period in which the land lay ripe, acquiring value from the labors of the early settlers, who proved its worth."

The Canadian Pacific did not receive a single acre of land from the people of Canada as a free gift; to assert otherwise is a misnomer of words. The railway company acquired the lands as a matter of contract, and did not come into possession of the lands until the contract was fulfilled. The Government, representing the people, desired the construction of a transcontinental railway, partly in compliance with the terms upon which British Columbia entered confederation, partly for the settlement of the northwest, and partly to cement the union. The government, therefore, entered into a bargain with a syndicate of gentlemen of wealth, patriotism and enterprise, to construct a railway from Montreal to Vancouver, agreeing to pay them for the work in cash, in land and in two partially-built sections of the line. Neither the money nor the land, nor the links which began nowhere and ended in the same place, was a free gift. It was payment for work to be performed, and had the work not been performed no payment would have been made. It was no more a free gift than is the money a merchant pays a contractor for the erection of a warehouse. The Globe prates about the princely heritage of land possessed by the Canadian Pacific. Who gave it value? The government? Not its value was created by the company, by large expenditure of money, by promoting settlement, by fulfillment of its contract. Before the steel was laid across the prairies the land was not worth ten cents an acre, because it accessible for commercial purposes. Even in 1885, after the rails had been laid, the government did not place a higher price upon the land than $1.50 per acre, which figure was deemed excessive by the Globe and its political friends.

One would infer from some of the criticisms that the whole Canadian Pacific system was promoted, paid for, and handed over to the company by the people of Canada; that the earnings of the company belong, at least in large measure, to the people, and that the great prosperity of the enterprise should be censured rather than commended. What is the fact? The price the government paid for the railway is insignificant when contrasted with the amount invested by debenture and shareholders. The railway was considered by investors so poor a proposition, even with its "princely heritage" of land, that the original share issue of $65,000,000 realized only 46 per cent. of face value, and at one time these shares were offered on the stock exchange at 33, with few buyers.

If today the lands of the company have large value, that value has been given them by the company. When the lands were handed over by the government for full value received, and much more than full value, indeed, they were practically worthless, and when these lands are appraised as a subvention or purchase payment, they should be appraised at their value in 1880, when the contract for the building of the railway was made, not at the value given them in 1919 by the enterprise, expenditure and able management of the company.

It Is Not All Gain

Neighbors No Longer Gossip at the Post Office and the Corner Store

A farmer friend was lamenting to the Orillia Packet the other day that modern "conveniences" were destroying the sociability of country life. Neighbors no longer meet and exchange greetings, and gossip at the post office and the corner store. The mail is delivered and taken up daily at the farmer's own gate. If neighbors have business to transact they use the telephone, instead of driving over, and so five minutes suffices for what would formerly have taken an hour. More and more the tendency is for the young people to lie them off to town by automobile in the evenings, instead of holding socials and concerts of their own. And so it is coming to pass that families can live on adjoining farms, and the adults scarcely ever meet, unless they happen to go to the same church, or to the Farmers' Club or Women's Institute. Much as the telephone, rural mail delivery and the auto are doing to relieve the isolation of country life, and to save time for the farmers, the change they are bringing about is not all gain.—Sincere Reformer.

Passing the Blame

German Military Leaders Trying to Find Excuses for Failure

Each of the German military and naval leaders, who by any chance have been or may be charged with responsibility for the loss of the war is reported either to have published or to be preparing his own vindication. Gen. Ludendorff has an apology in hand; General von Falkenhayn, chief of staff from November, 1914, to August, 1916, has an explanation ready for the press. Before this month is over Grand Admiral von Tirpitz will have issued his defense and is said to have selected as its title, "Why I failed." It is at least to his credit that he acknowledges failure, however much he may seek to pass the blame to other shoulders. As for the other supermen of the Prussian persuasion, one and all are more concerned with demonstrating how someone else failed and how impossible it was to repair the errors that others committed.

Ludendorff recently put the blame for the loss of the war on von Moltke, on von Falkenhayn and on Nicolai, the last-named the head of the German military intelligence service. General von Hoffman has saddled the responsibility on von Falkenhayn. Von Falkenhayn probably will blame von Hindenburg, the Kaiser, or von Moltke. Von Moltke is always the most convenient scapegoat. He can make no rejoinder, being dead.

Von Tirpitz had no forerunner as the creator of the German navy, as the challenger of British sea power and the father of piratical U-boat warfare. He cannot push the responsibility back. And his successors only followed the fatal course laid down by him. So he must face the fact of Germany's failure on the sea, which entailed failure on land. He had his way. And that way meant suicide for Germany. He cannot dissociate himself from the catastrophe. The best he can do will be to drag in other German leaders as co-architects and accomplices.

Ludendorff is manifestly one of these. He consented to the renewal of unrestricted submarine warfare in February, 1917. He displaced Hindenburg on that issue, becoming, in effect, a political as well as a military dictator. He had the power in January to stop the illegitimate U-boat activities. He also had the power, as late as April of that year, to rescind the proclamation of war on neutral shipping, which forced the United States into the contest. But he didn't interfere. He seemed to have hopes that a successful U-boat campaign would supplement German victories on land and thus help him to vanquish France, Great Britain, Italy, and, as already vanquished Russia.

This illusion was Germany's ruin. Von Tirpitz and Ludendorff were equally the sponsors for it. What they write now about themselves and each other can hardly lessen their culpability as the joint authors of Germany's downfall.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Under Bolshevik Rule

Executions Carried Out While Red Army Bands Played "Lively Airs"

Never before, even in the darkest days of a world which has witnessed many horrors, has there been such a blood-bath as the glooms of twentieth-century Russia fomented. Where, in past records, can we find, for instance, anything to equal a story hidden in the pages of the British White Paper, of executions carried out while the Red army bands played "lively airs"? One witness of such orgy has recorded that on one occasion he was playing in the band and, as usual, all the people to be executed were brought to the edge of the grave. Their hands and feet were tied together, so that they would fall forward into the grave. They were then shot through the neck by Leninist soldiers. When the last man had been shot the grave was closed up, and on this particular occasion the bandman saw the grave moving. Not being able to stand the sight of it, he fainted, whereupon the Bolsheviks seized him, saying that he was in sympathy with the prisoners. They were on the point of killing him, but other members of the band explained that he was really ill and he was then let off.—London Daily Telegraph.

The "Monstrous Bore"

So far back as the days of George IV. there were heated discussions on the Channel tunnel scheme according to a writer in the Star. A song called "Bubbles," published in 1825, contains this verse:

A tunnel underneath the seas from Calais straight to Dover, sirs, That quailish folk may safely cross by land from shore to shore;

With sluices made to drown the French, if e'er they would come over, sirs,

Has long been talked of, till at length 'tis thought a monstrous bore.

Judge Wants Power To Deport Aliens

Ontario Chief Justice Says Present Machinery Utterly Insufficient

Toronto. — In its presentment to Chief Justice Sir William Macdougall, the Grand Jury at the Assizes reported that the majority of cases it had been called on to deal with had been of a serious nature: murder, attempted murder, and manslaughter. "We have been impressed by the fact," the presentment read, "that the foreign elements contributed largely to these serious cases, and this grand jury endorses any legislation to limit the influx of foreigners to this country. It is the opinion of this grand jury that any steps taken towards the deportation of these undesirable now within the country would be greatly in the interests of the country at large."

Sir William remarked that the machinery for deportation was "utterly insufficient, and added that he did not see why there should be any statutory limitations. Every court, he thought, should have the right to try and deport aliens. Some aliens came to the country, remained quiet for a time, but eventually their early endorsement asserted itself.

The cereal crops of the United States were worth over $7,000,000,000 to the farmers who raised them in 1918.

Never Troubled With Headache

This Relief From Suffering Fully Appreciated by the Writer of This Letter—Tells Others How Cure Was Effectuated

"South Fork, Sask., June 9. — Mrs. Letts, of this place, has a happy experience to relate. She suffered terribly with headaches, but headache medicines never seemed to help her. The trouble came from torpid, sluggish action of the liver, kidneys and bowels, and when this condition was overcome by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the headaches disappeared, and Mrs. Letts felt that her health was completely restored."

Mrs. A. F. Letts, South Fork, Sask., writes: "I suffered from terrible headaches, so severe I thought sometimes I would go crazy from them. No remedy I ever tried helped me until I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Since using these I can say I am never troubled with headaches now, and feel much better generally."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. O. P. Cole, Postmaster at South Fork, Sask.

Mrs. E. L. Harris, Kealey P.O., Sask., writes: "I was suffering from liver trouble had a heavy pain under one shoulder, and was completely dazed, and as black as dirt around the eyes, so I concluded to try some of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and before I had taken one 25c box the pain had left me, and I commenced to gain in flesh, and by the time I had taken three boxes I was completely cured and felt like a new person. My trouble was caused by heavy work out of doors, and, of course, heavy eating, and constipation. I would advise anyone suffering from Kidney or Liver trouble to give Dr. Chase's Pills a trial."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Refuse substitutes. The genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., on the label.

Wins 20,000 Francs

For being the first aviator to successfully land his plane on the roof of a building, J. Vedrines, noted French flier, was awarded a prize of 20,000 francs. Vedrines landed on the top of the Galeries Lafayette, Paris, an area about 45 x 30 feet. Additional credit for this remarkable achievement is given him because the spread of his planes was only a little less than the width of the roof.

The first sperm whale found on the Californian coast in forty years was discovered in Monterey Bay by rock fishermen, who found the carcass off Point Pinos. The fishermen reported that the whale—which was 63 feet long—had been killed by a species of dolphin called the "killer." Its tongue had been eaten and the whale was towed in and sold to a local fish company, and ten barrels of case oil were obtained from its head.

Bush Fires in Rainy Lake District

Between Virginia and International Falls Gangs Are Out
St. Paul, Minn.—Several bad fires were reported to State Forester W. T. Cox. Heavy rain is necessary to put out the flames, although all are reported "under control." Rangers' reports say fires are making "acute situation."

Several square miles of valuable timber were burned, northeast of Munro Lake. More than 100 men of Virginia and Rainy Lake Lumber Co. are fighting the fire between Virginia and International Falls, and other fires are running between Vermilion and Rainy Lakes. The most serious are on Vermilion River.

LILY WHITE Corn Syrup

For Preserving Thousands of the best housekeepers have discovered that using half sugar and half Lily White Corn Syrup makes preserving more uniformly successful.

To start with, the consistency is bound to be just right from the very nature of the syrup; there is no danger of the preserves crystallizing; the syrup brings out the natural flavor of the fruit; the keeping quality is excellent and the preserves do not have the cloying sweetness of all sugar.

For better preserves, use Lily White Corn Syrup.

Armenia's Claims For Independence

President of Delegation at Peace Conference Summarizes Events.

New York, N.Y.—Armenia's case for independence was stated in full by Avestis Aharonian, president of the Armenian delegation at the peace conference, in the memorandum he presented to the conference some time ago, a copy of which has now been made available to this office. The memorandum, which summarizes the series of events in northern Armenia which culminated in the establishment of the Republic of Armenia, concludes as follows:

"It is this republic, whose government and parliament sit in its capital, at Erivan, which has delegated us as its representatives to the peace conference and has charged us to submit to it the following:

"1. Russia, in abandoning the Armenians to their lot, in spite of their prayers, in bequeathing to them a war which it was manifestly beyond their power to carry on; in handing over to Turkey by the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, without even consulting them, the Armenian provinces of the Caucasus, Kars, Ardahan, and Naghshivan, thereby causing incalculable injury to hundreds of thousands of Armenians, has, by these very acts and of her own free will, broken for ever all ties existing between Russia and Armenia.

"2. The Republic of Armenia, accordingly, believing itself justified in demanding the immediate recognition of its independence, which has been merited and won upon the field of battle, and which the success of its arms has obliged even its enemies to recognize.

"3. Taking into consideration this war, which Armenia has waged all alone for the defense of the cause of the allies and the superhuman sacrifices which all the Armenians have made, I have now the honor to claim, in the name of the Armenian nation, the place which Armenia has justly merited at the peace conference, beside Emir Faizal and the representatives of the Czech-Slovaks, Poles, and Serbs.

"4. The delegation of the Armenian Republic submits that it acts in all its demands and proceedings in perfect accord with the Armenian declaration of Turkey, presided over at Paris by His Excellency Boghos Nubar Pasha."

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winnipeg, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not just at all—could not lie down and get so nervous I could not get up and work and in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. ALBERTA SUTZ, 608 Olmstead St., Winnipeg, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep" or "it seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sutz's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pain, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

Rhine Republic Is Not Unanimous

Berlin.—The inhabitants of Mayence and Weisbaden passed a 24-hour strike in protest against the attempted coup in proclaiming an independent Palatinate republic. It is also reported that pro-German Palatinates at Mannheim declared a general strike and that the inhabitants of the Palatinate, notwithstanding threats by the French; of court-martial, everywhere are tearing down the posters proclaiming the republic.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter: wear shoes a size smaller if you like; for cats will never again send you to the hospital through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.
He says that a few drops of a drug called freezeon, applied directly upon a tender, aching spot, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire foot, heel and all, is right and well. This drug is a sticky, ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.
It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezeon obtained at any drug store will cost very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

Reds Pillaged Riga

In the Various Prisons, Sixteen Hundred Hostages Were Found.
Paris.—The Bolsheviks, before they retired from Riga, shot thirty persons in the central prison there, according to official reports received by the American peace delegates. The anti-Bolshevik troops captured Riga with slight fighting, surprising the Bolsheviks, who fled hastily.

All the stores and homes of the well-to-do were pillaged by the Bolsheviks and most of the bourgeoisie were compelled to leave the city before it fell. The material damage to the city was slight. In the various prisons, sixteen hundred hostages were found. The reports also stated that as being in a state of unspeakable misery and starvation when they were released.

The Danger of Stem Rust

Is Carried by Fungus Which Can Survive Winter Through Barberry Bushes

The outbreak of stem rust in 1916 caused a loss of from 50,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels of wheat in Western Canada. Every year this rust is more or less common all over Canada, attacking wheat, oats, barley and rye and greatly reducing the yield in many places.

The rust disease is caused by a fungus which attacks the leaves and stems of wheat and other grains, and produces masses of reddish spores on these parts. These spores are blown about and spread the rust during the summer. Later in the season small black masses are formed chiefly on the stem. These also consist of spores, but they will not attack grains. They, however, live over the winter, and in the spring attack the young parts of the common barberry. Masses of yellow spores are soon produced, chiefly on the leaves, and they are carried by the wind from the barberry to grasses or grains grown near, and thus the rust started by the barberry spreads rapidly.

It may be that the stem rust has other ways of living over the winter till the next season and affecting grains without the aid of the barberry, but if so, the way of doing this is still unknown. However, it has been proven many times that the rust can be by means of the barberry live over the winter and spread to grains and grasses before it has appeared elsewhere, so that the barberry is an important agent in the spread of this rust.

The barberry is a shrub planted on lawns and in hedges for ornamental purposes. There are no native wild barberries east of the Rocky Mountains. All of the barberries common here are susceptible to the stem rust except the Japanese varieties. The common barberry has spiny stems and reddish berries which hang in long clusters on the bushes all winter. The spines are usually in groups of three. The leaves have spiny teeth on the edges and are green in some varieties and purple in others. The Japanese barberry does not grow as tall as the common, but is rather low and spreading. The stems are spiny, but the spines are generally single, although sometimes three together. The leaves are smaller with a smooth edge. The fruit is red and remains on the bushes all winter, but the berries are single or only two or three together. Since it is certain that the common barberry is a menace to the grain crops, they should be destroyed. They should be completely uprooted, as if only cut down and large roots are left in the ground, the shrub readily springs up again. The Japanese common barberry is escaping from cultivation, so there is a danger that it may become a more serious matter to the grain crop than at present. Care should be taken not to destroy the Japanese varieties as it does not spread fast, and is a satisfactory shrub for ornamental purposes.

American Plants in Canada

Many Concerns Include Considerable Proportion of Canadians

Montreal, Quebec.—According to a carefully compiled estimate just made public here there are 388 manufacturing plants in Canada which are directly connected with United States concerns. The average capital is estimated at $682,834, making a total investment of $264,939,592. The actual paid-up capital in the case of 76 of the companies was found to be $31,895,350, and as these companies were fairly representative of the whole list, the average for them was considered a fair basis for making the estimate. A similar list was compiled in January, 1914, the number of plants being then estimated at 450, and the total investment $135,000,000, an average of $300,000. The list does not represent the investment of United States capital exclusively, as the lists of shareholders of many of the Canadian concerns include a considerable proportion of Canadians. On the other hand, there is a large number of companies not included, the shareholders of which comprise many citizens of the United States. In the case of some enterprises, for instance, which have always been distinctly Canadian, a majority of the stock is now held in the United States. The total investment represented by the list given may, therefore, be considered a conservative estimate of United States investments in Canadian manufacturing enterprises.

Field Empire Day Service

London, England.—Empire Day was celebrated by a memorial service for the overseas forces, at Westminster Abbey, at which the King and Queen with other members of the royal family, and representatives of the allied nations, British colonies and army and navy were present. The keenly anticipated American march was unavoidably postponed, public military ceremonies being conspicuous by their absence. Buildings were decorated with flags and the occasion was celebrated in a fitting fashion in the schools.

Swedish Government Asks For Plebiscite

To Determine Nationality of Aaland Islands

Paris, France.—The Swedish Government has sent the peace conference a note asking that a plebiscite be taken as soon as possible to determine the nationality of the Aaland Islands, lying between Sweden and Finland, at the entrance to the Gulf of Bothnia. The note reads: "The Royal Government feels that it must insist upon the conference taking into consideration as soon as possible the question of the rights of the population of the Aaland Islands to decide by a plebiscite, carried out with the necessary guarantees, whether the archipelago is to belong to Sweden or to Finland."
"The Royal Government presumes that on account of the principles expressed at the peace conference, Sweden will be allowed to take part in the deliberation of this question. It is needless to add that the Royal Government greatly wishes that if the plebiscite gives the islands to Sweden, measures shall be taken to prevent the construction of military buildings in the archipelago, and also to prevent attacks on the archipelago by another power."
